

Your Community - Working Together

The Creek Bend Residents Association Inc (CBRA) is actively involved in issues of interest to local area condominium owners and individual landowners.

Achievements: • 1269/1275 St Anne's Rd • Curb entrance changed so as not to interfere with Creek Bend Rd traffic • Intersection, Creek Bend Rd @ St Anne's Rd • Intersection widened for easier turns • Intersection of St Anne's Rd @ Perimeter • Left-turn signal installed. • CBRA Facebook Group established. (https://tinyurl.com/533tb99x) • Website created. (https://creekbendra.ca)	Ongoing Involvement: • Sharing information on • Best practices • Experiences with contractors • Neighbourhood Watch • Captains, co-captains, community connections • Training • Signage • Reporting • 180 Creek Bend Rd • Updates as they happen • Bus turnaround • Toilets • Garbage • Homelessness • Working with Save Our Seine • Regular volunteer activities. • Protecting the river and its surroundings. • Engaging with Province and City at Aimes Road Bridge to: • Provide garbage containers, pickup. • Maintain biodiversity of park. • Manage invasive plants. • Install signage. • Monitor water withdrawal by landscaping companies
Present & future – gathering and sharing information, intervening: • Precinct K development • Qualico Development / Landmark Planning • CPKC Railway Crossing • Warde Ave bridge • Active Transportation Corridors • River banks and wetlands

You get representation, information sharing, and a seat at the CBRA Board table through your condo corporation membership. Condo membership fees are only $5 per 'door' per year, i.e. $0.42/month of your condo fees. This covers basic out-of-pocket operational costs. All labour is voluntary.

Make Sure You Have Your Seat at the CBRA Table

For details, contact

Dave Watson, deejer58@yahoo.com,

Ray Temmerman, ray.temmerman@gmail.com, 204 881 8274